

ADHORTATION

Meaning: Adhortation: a strong urging or encouragement to take a specific action or to adopt a particular attitude.

1. The leader's adhortation inspired the team to strive for excellence.
2. In her speech, she offered a heartfelt adhortation for unity among the community.
3. The teacher's adhortation to pursue knowledge resonated with her students.
4. He responded to the adhortation by making a commitment to improve his performance.
5. The pastor's adhortation emphasized the importance of compassion and understanding.
6. The adhortation from the coach motivated the players to give their best effort.
7. During the meeting, his adhortation to embrace change was met with enthusiasm.
8. She delivered an adhortation that encouraged her peers to volunteer in their local neighborhoods.
9. The adhortation from the mentor helped shape his career path significantly.
10. His final adhortation before retirement left a lasting impact on his colleagues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adhortation>