

ADIPOMA

Meaning: Adipoma is a benign tumor composed of fatty tissue.

1. An adipoma is a benign tumor made up of fat tissue.
2. The doctor explained that an adipoma usually does not require treatment unless it causes discomfort.
3. She was relieved to learn that her lump was an adipoma and not something more serious.
4. After the biopsy, the pathologist confirmed the diagnosis of an adipoma.
5. Adipomas are typically painless and grow slowly over time.
6. He decided to have the adipoma surgically removed for cosmetic reasons.
7. Although adipomas are generally harmless, they can sometimes be mistaken for liposarcomas.
8. Regular check-ups can help monitor the size of an adipoma to ensure it remains benign.
9. The presence of an adipoma can be surprising, especially if it appears suddenly.
10. Patients with multiple adipomas may have a genetic predisposition to developing them.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adipoma>