

ADJECTIVAL

Meaning: Adjectival refers to a word or phrase that functions as an adjective, describing or modifying a noun.

1. The word "beautiful" functions as an adjectival in the sentence.
2. Understanding adjectival phrases can enhance your writing skills.
3. In English, adjectival forms often describe nouns and pronouns.
4. The teacher emphasized the importance of using adjectival modifiers.
5. Many languages have unique ways of forming adjectival expressions.
6. An adjectival clause can provide essential information about a noun.
7. She used an adjectival phrase to make her description more vivid.
8. His adjectival choice added depth to the poetry he wrote.
9. In linguistics, an adjectival is a word that modifies a noun.
10. The adjectival form of "beauty" is "beautiful," which is commonly used.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adjectival>