

ADJECTIVELY

Meaning: Adjectively: in a manner that relates to or employs adjectives, particularly in describing qualities or characteristics.

1. She described the artwork adjectively, focusing on its vibrant colors and textures.
2. In her analysis, she approached the subject adjectively, highlighting its emotional impact.
3. The teacher encouraged the students to think adjectively when interpreting the poem.
4. To express herself more vividly, she chose to write adjectively rather than just narratively.
5. He characterized the landscape adjectively, emphasizing its breathtaking beauty.
6. The critic reviewed the film adjectively, noting its compelling performances and stunning visuals.
7. In the discussion, she spoke adjectively about the character's motivations and flaws.
8. The descriptive passage was crafted adjectively, painting a clear picture in the reader's mind.
9. When writing her essay, she aimed to engage the reader adjectively through creative language.
10. His presentation was enhanced by his ability to speak adjectively about the topic at hand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adjectively>