

ADJOINING

Meaning: Adjoining: located next to or in contact with something else; neighboring.

1. The artist's studio is located in an adjoining room to the gallery.
2. We decided to book adjoining hotel suites for our family vacation.
3. The two houses have adjoining gardens that create a beautiful landscape.
4. Her office is adjoining the main conference room, making it convenient for meetings.
5. They purchased an adjoining plot of land to expand their business operations.
6. The restaurant has an adjoining patio that offers outdoor seating.
7. He loved the idea of living in an adjoining apartment with his best friend.
8. The library's reading room features an adjoining lounge for relaxation.
9. The school plans to build an adjoining gymnasium to accommodate more students.
10. The adjoining properties share a common fence that needs to be repaired.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adjoining>