

ADJOURNMENT

Meaning: Adjournment refers to the suspension or postponement of a meeting, trial, or session to a later time or date.

1. The judge announced the adjournment of the trial until the following week.
2. After a lengthy debate, the committee decided on an adjournment to gather more information.
3. The meeting's adjournment was unanimously agreed upon by all members present.
4. Due to unforeseen circumstances, the conference faced an unexpected adjournment.
5. He was disappointed by the adjournment, as he had prepared extensively for the presentation.
6. The adjournment allowed everyone to take a much-needed break before the next session.
7. Following the adjournment, the team reconvened to discuss their next steps.
8. The lawyer filed a motion for adjournment to review the new evidence.
9. Members were informed that the adjournment would extend until further notice.
10. During the adjournment, participants had the opportunity to network and share ideas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adjournment>