

ADJUDGER

Meaning: Adjudger: a person who makes a formal judgment or decision in a legal or dispute resolution context.

1. The adjudger carefully examined the evidence before making a ruling.
2. As the final adjudger in the dispute, she had the authority to settle the matter.
3. The panel of judges included an experienced adjudger known for her fairness.
4. In a court of law, the adjudger's decision can have significant consequences.
5. The role of the adjudger is crucial in ensuring a just outcome in competitions.
6. He appointed an impartial adjudger to oversee the negotiation process.
7. An effective adjudger listens attentively to all parties involved in a case.
8. The adjudger's interpretation of the rules was challenged by several participants.
9. After much deliberation, the adjudger announced the winner of the contest.
10. Being an adjudger requires both knowledge of the law and a strong sense of ethics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adjudger>