

ADJUNCTLY

Meaning: ADJUNCTLY: in a manner that is supplementary or additional to something else.

1. The researchers examined the data adjunctly to support their primary findings.
2. Her role in the project was adjunctly linked to the main objectives of the research.
3. The committee discussed the proposal adjunctly, considering various perspectives.
4. He contributed adjunctly, providing valuable insights without being the lead author.
5. The new policy was implemented adjunctly with existing regulations to ensure compliance.
6. They offered additional training adjunctly, enhancing the core curriculum.
7. Adjunctly, the seminar covered topics that were relevant but not central to the main theme.
8. The team worked adjunctly with the marketing department to launch the campaign.
9. The software was designed to function adjunctly with other applications for better performance.
10. Adjunctly, her experience in finance complemented her role in the project management team.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adjunctly>