

ADJURATION

Meaning: Adjuration: a solemn urging or earnest request, often made with deep emotion or sincerity.

1. The priest's adjuration was filled with fervent passion as he urged the congregation to seek forgiveness.
2. With a heartfelt adjuration, she begged her friends to reconsider their hasty decision.
3. The judge's adjuration to the jury emphasized the importance of impartiality in their verdict.
4. In an emotional moment, he made an adjuration to his family to stay united during difficult times.
5. The coach delivered an adjuration to his players, inspiring them to give their all in the championship game.
6. Her adjuration for kindness resonated deeply in the audience, prompting a thoughtful silence.
7. He issued an adjuration to the crowd, urging them to take action against injustice.
8. The teacher's adjuration for respect in the classroom created a more harmonious learning environment.
9. Through his adjuration, she felt a renewed sense of purpose and determination to pursue her dreams.
10. The politician's adjuration for unity was met with a standing ovation from the hopeful crowd.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adjuration>