

ADJUTANT

Meaning: Adjutant: a military officer who assists a higher-ranking officer by managing administrative tasks and coordinating communications.

1. The general relied heavily on his adjutant for strategic advice.
2. During the military exercise, the adjutant coordinated communications between units.
3. The young officer served as an adjutant, gaining invaluable experience on the front lines.
4. Her role as the adjutant required exceptional organizational skills and attention to detail.
5. The adjutant presented the plans to the commanding officer with clarity and confidence.
6. In times of crisis, the adjutant proved to be a calm and resourceful leader.
7. He rose through the ranks, ultimately becoming an adjutant to a high-ranking general.
8. The adjutant's diligence ensured that all supplies were accounted for during the deployment.
9. She admired the professionalism of her adjutant, who always remained composed under pressure.
10. The adjutant played a crucial role in maintaining morale among the troops during the mission.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adjutant>