

ADLOCUTION

Meaning: Adlocution is a formal speech or address delivered to an audience.

1. The politician delivered an impassioned adlocution that resonated with the crowd.
2. In her adlocution, the professor emphasized the importance of critical thinking in education.
3. His adlocution at the conference captivated the audience and sparked lively discussions.
4. During the ceremony, the keynote speaker's adlocution highlighted the achievements of the honorees.
5. She prepared her adlocution meticulously, ensuring every word conveyed her message powerfully.
6. The adlocution was so effective that it inspired many to take action on the issue.
7. As a master orator, he was known for his adlocution skills that could sway public opinion.
8. The adlocution he gave at the graduation ceremony was both motivational and heartfelt.
9. In political debates, the ability to deliver a compelling adlocution can make all the difference.
10. Her adlocution on climate change earned her widespread recognition and respect in environmental circles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adlocution>