ADMINISTRATORSHIP

Meaning: Administratorship refers to the role or position of managing and overseeing operations or activities within an organization or institution.

1. The success of the project hinged on effective administratorship by the team leader.
2. After years in academics, she was finally recognized for her exceptional administratorship in the department.
3. His administratorship was characterized by transparency and inclusivity in decision-making.
4. The governing body praised her for her outstanding administratorship during the challenging transition period.
5. In a modern organization, good administratorship is essential for fostering innovation and collaboration.
6. Her administratorship was marked by a commitment to professional development for all staff members.
7. With their strong administratorship, the nonprofit was able to expand its outreach significantly.
8. The board of directors held a meeting to discuss the future of administratorship within the organization.
9. Effective administratorship can greatly influence employee morale and productivity.
10. He wrote a comprehensive report on the principles of administratorship in nonprofit management.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/administratorship