

ADMIRER

Meaning: An admirer is a person who has a strong liking or appreciation for someone, often in a romantic or affectionate manner.

1. He was her secret admirer, always leaving notes in her locker.
2. An admirer approached her after the concert to express his appreciation for her performance.
3. She felt flattered by the attention of an admirer who sent her a bouquet of roses.
4. Despite being an admirer from afar, he never had the courage to speak to her.
5. The famous artist had many admirers, but only a few truly understood his work.
6. As an admirer of classic literature, she often spent her weekends reading in the park.
7. His admiration for her talent made him a devoted admirer of her music.
8. The film depicted a love story between an admirer and a famous actress.
9. She often found herself daydreaming about her admirer and what could have been.
10. Being an admirer of her style, many sought her fashion advice and inspiration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/admirer>