

ADMIT

Meaning: To acknowledge or confess the truth of something, often reluctantly.

1. I must admit that I was wrong about the outcome.
2. She was hesitant to admit her feelings for him.
3. The witness refused to admit any knowledge of the events.
4. He decided to admit his mistake and apologize.
5. Admitting your weaknesses can be a sign of strength.
6. The student had to admit that he hadn't studied enough for the exam.
7. It's important to admit when you need help.
8. She finally admitted that she had been jealous of her friend.
9. The politician refused to admit any wrongdoing during the investigation.
10. Sometimes, admitting the truth can be the hardest part of healing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/admit>