

ADMITTER

Meaning: Admitter: a person who acknowledges or confesses to a truth or secret.

1. The admitter of the confession showed great courage in facing the truth.
2. As the admitter of the secret, she felt an immense weight lifted off her shoulders.
3. In court, the admitter provided crucial evidence that changed the outcome of the trial.
4. The admitter struggled with feelings of guilt but knew honesty was the best policy.
5. Being the admitter in the group, he accepted responsibility for the mistake.
6. The admitter's words echoed in the room, leaving everyone in stunned silence.
7. She became known as the admitter of the project's failures, paving the way for future success.
8. The admitter of the error took steps to rectify the situation immediately.
9. In a surprising turn of events, the admitter revealed their identity during the meeting.
10. The admitter felt a sense of relief after finally sharing their burden with others.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/admitter>