ADMONITIVE

Meaning: Admonitive: serving to warn or reprimand; conveying a sense of caution or correction.

1. The teacher's admonitive tone made it clear that she expected better behavior from her students.
2. His admonitive remarks served as a reminder of the importance of honesty in their dealings.
3. The book was filled with an admonitive message about the consequences of greed and selfishness.
4. She gave him an admonitive look, warning him not to make the same mistake again.
5. In her admonitive speech, she emphasized the need for compassion and understanding in the community.
6. The film included several admonitive scenes that urged viewers to reflect on their own actions.
7. His admonitive advice resonated with many, prompting them to think twice before acting impulsively.
8. The coach's admonitive words motivated the team to push themselves harder during practice.
9. An admonitive approach can often lead to positive changes in one's behavior and choices.
10. The letter contained admonitive language regarding the importance of adhering to the established guidelines.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/admonitive