

ADMONITOR

Meaning: Admonitor (verb): To supervise or oversee individuals closely to ensure compliance with rules or standards.

1. The teacher decided to admonitor the students more closely during the exam.
2. In an effort to improve workplace behavior, the manager chose to admonitor the team regularly.
3. It became necessary to admonitor the project closely, as deadlines were approaching quickly.
4. The coach would admonitor the players about their attitudes both on and off the field.
5. Parents should admonitor their children's screen time to ensure a healthy balance.
6. To maintain a safe environment, the security staff needed to admonitor the crowds effectively.
7. She made it a point to admonitor her spending habits to avoid financial troubles.
8. The supervisor was tasked to admonitor the compliance of safety regulations in the factory.
9. During the conference, the moderator had to admonitor the discussion to keep it on track.
10. To avoid accidents, it is essential to admonitor all equipment regularly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/admonitor>