

ADOREMENT

Meaning: Adorement is a noun that refers to deep love or affection for someone or something.

1. Her adoring smile was a clear sign of her adoration for him.
2. The children's adoration for their favorite cartoon character was evident in their excited chatter.
3. He expressed his adoration for classical music by attending concerts every month.
4. With every small gesture, she showed her adoration for the little things in life.
5. The artist's work was met with adoration from critics and fans alike.
6. His heartfelt poem was a reflection of the deep adoration he felt for his partner.
7. The dog's unwavering loyalty was a testament to its adoration for its owner.
8. In moments of quiet, her adoration for nature filled the air with a peaceful serenity.
9. The adoration between the couple grew stronger as they faced life's challenges together.
10. She felt an overwhelming sense of adoration while watching the sunset paint the sky.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adorement>