

ADRIFT

Meaning: Adrift: floating without control or direction, often due to abandonment or lack of guidance.

1. The boat was left adrift after the crew abandoned it in the storm.
2. Her thoughts floated adrift, lost in a sea of uncertainty and doubt.
3. He felt adrift in his career, unsure of which path to take next.
4. After the argument, she wandered the city, feeling emotionally adrift.
5. The old manuscript was discovered adrift in a dusty attic, forgotten for years.
6. The children watched the paper boat sail adrift on the gentle river.
7. With no GPS signal, they were adrift in the vast wilderness.
8. The dreams he once cherished now seemed adrift, unanchored by reality.
9. As the tides shifted, the debris from the wreckage lay adrift in the ocean.
10. In her solitude, she found beauty in being adrift, free from life's expectations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adrift>