

ADSCRIPTIVE

Meaning: Adscriptive refers to something that is assigned or attributed to a particular context or entity, often limiting or defining characteristics or rights.

1. The adscriptive nature of the contract limited the rights of the parties involved.
2. In linguistics, adscriptive attributes can add depth to a character's description.
3. The adscriptive quality of the title helped to establish his credibility in the discussion.
4. She found the adscriptive elements in the document to be quite restrictive.
5. His adscriptive role in the project ensured that all contributions were recognized.
6. The adscriptive details in the report clarified the research's purpose and scope.
7. By highlighting the adscriptive factors in the analysis, the researcher gained more insights.
8. The adscriptive labels on the products confused consumers about their actual benefits.
9. In art, adscriptive techniques can enhance the viewer's understanding of the piece.
10. The politician's adscriptive comments drew attention to the underlying issues in the community.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adscriptive>