

ADULATION

Meaning: Adulation is excessive praise or flattery, often directed towards someone admired or idolized.

1. The celebrity was overwhelmed by the adulation of her fans at the concert.
2. His constant adulation of the leader raised questions about his objectivity.
3. She found the adulation from her peers both flattering and suffocating.
4. The athlete received adulation from the crowd after breaking the world record.
5. In a world filled with adulation, she struggled to stay grounded.
6. The politician basked in the adulation of his supporters during the campaign.
7. Adulation can often blur the line between admiration and obsession.
8. The artist thrived on the adulation that came with his latest exhibition.
9. Adulation can sometimes lead to unrealistic expectations from the admired.
10. While he appreciated the adulation, he preferred to focus on his work rather than the praise.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adulation>