

ADULTERATION

Meaning: Adulteration is the act of adding inferior or harmful substances to food or pharmaceuticals, compromising their quality and safety.

1. The adulteration of food products can pose serious health risks to consumers.
2. Regulatory agencies are responsible for monitoring and preventing the adulteration of pharmaceuticals.
3. Despite strict regulations, cases of adulteration continue to emerge in the market.
4. The coffee was found to contain traces of adulteration, leading to a recall of the product.
5. Consumers should be aware of potential adulteration in low-cost dietary supplements.
6. Adulteration not only affects quality but also undermines consumer trust in brands.
7. The scientist conducted tests to identify any signs of adulteration in the sample.
8. Adulteration is often driven by profit motives at the expense of public safety.
9. Education on food adulteration is essential for empowering consumers to make informed choices.
10. The effects of adulteration can be long-lasting, impacting both health and the economy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adulteration>