

ADULTERATOR

Meaning: ADULTERATOR: A person or entity that unlawfully alters a substance, typically by adding inferior or harmful ingredients, to deceive consumers.

1. The adulterator of the wine caused a scandal in the community.
2. Authorities arrested an adulterator who was mixing cheap oils with high-end products.
3. In ancient times, being labeled an adulterator could lead to severe punishment.
4. Consumers are increasingly vigilant against any potential adulterator in food supply chains.
5. The presence of an adulterator in the market undermines consumer trust.
6. Detectives worked tirelessly to uncover the identity of the mysterious adulterator.
7. Even a small amount of adulteration can label a manufacturer as an adulterator.
8. The company faced backlash after being exposed as an adulterator of organic ingredients.
9. Experts warned that the actions of an adulterator can have widespread health implications.
10. Legislation has been introduced to impose harsher penalties on any identified adulterator.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adulterator>