

ADULTEROUSLY

Meaning: ADULTEROUSLY: in a manner that involves or is characterized by infidelity in a committed relationship or marriage.

1. She met him adulterously in the shadows of the old library.
2. Their relationship began adulterously, hidden from prying eyes and judgment.
3. He gazed at her adulterously, knowing the consequences of their actions.
4. The lovers exchanged texts adulterously, weaving a web of deceit.
5. Adulterously, they planned their escape to a distant city where no one knew them.
6. She felt a thrill of excitement as they kissed adulterously beneath the stars.
7. Their meetings were always adulterously charged with tension and longing.
8. Adulterously, they shared secrets that bound them closer together.
9. He wrote her letters adulterously, filled with promises and passion.
10. In a world that expected fidelity, they embraced their feelings adulterously.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adulterously>