ADURE

Meaning: ADURE (verb): To scorch or burn the surface of something due to intense heat or prolonged exposure.

1. The intense heat of the sun began to adure the delicate fabric of her dress.
2. After hours of exposure, the paint on the old shed started to adure and peel away.
3. The extreme temperatures can adure even the toughest materials over time.
4. He watched the flames adure the wood until it crumbled into ashes.
5. The relentless sun can adure the landscape, leaving it dry and cracked.
6. Farmers worry that the drought will adure their crops before harvest.
7. The artist used a special technique to prevent the colors from aduring in the sunlight.
8. Despite being protected, the statue still showed signs of aduring due to the harsh weather.
9. She could see the adured edges of the parchment, a testament to its age and fragility.
10. The once vibrant colors of the mural began to adure, losing their brilliance over the years.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adure