

ADUST

Meaning: Adust refers to being scorched or burned, often resulting in a dry, parched appearance.

1. The adust landscape appeared lifeless under the scorching sun.
2. Her skin turned adust after spending too much time in the wind and sun.
3. The scientist studied how plants adapt to adust conditions in arid environments.
4. He described the adust terrain as harsh but oddly beautiful in its barrenness.
5. The artist captured the adust hues of the desert sunset in her painting.
6. Adust wood can be difficult to ignite, even in dry weather.
7. The adust atmosphere of the abandoned town sent shivers down her spine.
8. They focused on developing crops that could thrive in adust climates.
9. The adust earth cracked underfoot, revealing its desperate need for rain.
10. His adust complexion suggested he had recently been outdoors for too long.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adust>