ADVERBIALIZE

Meaning: To adverbialize means to convert a phrase or expression into an adverbial form, enhancing its descriptive quality or modifying a verb.

1. To fully understand the function of the word, we need to adverbialize the entire phrase.
2. She decided to adverbialize her description to make it more dynamic.
3. In order to clarify the action, he attempted to adverbialize the verb.
4. Teachers often encourage students to adverbialize their sentences for better expression.
5. By choosing the right adverbs, you can effectively adverbialize any statement.
6. The workshop focused on how to adverbialize nouns for clearer writing.
7. It can be challenging to adverbialize phrases without losing their original meaning.
8. Writers sometimes forget to adverbialize their sentences, leading to monotony.
9. To enhance the narrative, the author sought to adverbialize key actions.
10. In their editing process, they needed to adverbialize several lines for impact.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adverbialize