

ADVERSION

Meaning: Adversion (noun): a strong dislike or aversion to something.

1. Adversion to change can often hinder personal growth.
2. Her adversion to loud noises made concerts a challenge for her.
3. The community's adversion to the proposed development plan was evident.
4. He expressed his adversion to the new policies during the meeting.
5. Despite his adversion to confrontation, he stood up for his beliefs.
6. The team's adversion to criticism slowed their progress in the project.
7. Adversion to unhealthy habits is crucial for long-term wellness.
8. Her adversion to spicy food limited her dining options while traveling.
9. They faced adversion from the public regarding their controversial decision.
10. His adversion to excess caffeine led him to switch to herbal tea.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adversion>