

ADVERTENT

Meaning: ADVERTENT (adjective): attentive and careful in observing or considering details; mindful.

1. The advertent student quickly grasped the complex concepts during the lecture.
2. She had an advertent approach to her work, ensuring every detail was considered.
3. His advertent nature helped him avoid the pitfalls that others often fell into.
4. Being advertent to the needs of her team made her an effective leader.
5. The advertent observer noticed the subtle changes in the artwork over time.
6. With an advertent gaze, he scanned the room for any potential issues.
7. Her advertent listening skills made her the go-to person for advice.
8. The advertent reader caught the author's hidden messages with ease.
9. In an advertent manner, he addressed each question during the Q&A session.
10. An advertent attitude can significantly enhance one's learning experience.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/advertent>