

ADVERTISEMENT

Meaning: ADVERTISEMENT: A public notice or announcement designed to promote a product, service, or idea, often using engaging visuals and messages.

1. The new advertisement for the smartphone features stunning visuals and catchy music.
2. She couldn't help but laugh at the absurdity of the advertisement promoting a diet pill.
3. The advertisement was so compelling that it convinced many people to try the product.
4. After seeing the advertisement, he decided to visit the store to check out the sale.
5. They launched an advertisement campaign aimed at raising awareness about climate change.
6. The vivid colors in the advertisement caught the attention of passersby.
7. Critics praised the advertisement for its creativity and originality.
8. He often skips watching television because he dislikes the frequent interruptions for advertisements.
9. The advertisement cleverly plays on emotions to connect with its audience.
10. She was inspired by an advertisement she saw online to start her own business.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/advertisement>