

ADVISERSHIP

Meaning: Advisership refers to the role or position of providing guidance and expert advice, particularly in a professional or organizational context.

1. Her advisership in the company has been pivotal during the recent restructuring.
2. The board relied heavily on his advisership to navigate the complex legal challenges.
3. She was appointed to a position of advisership to guide the new CEO through the transition.
4. His experience in advisership has earned him respect among his peers in the industry.
5. The advisership he provided during the crisis was instrumental in stabilizing the organization.
6. Through her advisership, the team was able to achieve its goals more efficiently.
7. The advisership offered at the conference was invaluable for emerging entrepreneurs.
8. Many seek her advisership for insights on market trends and strategic planning.
9. His advisership helped the nonprofit secure funding for their crucial projects.
10. The effectiveness of her advisership was evident in the company's rapid growth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/advisership>