

ADVOCATESHIP

Meaning: Advocateship refers to the role or position of actively supporting or promoting a cause, particularly in a legal or social context.

1. Her advocateship in the environmental movement has garnered widespread recognition.
2. The young lawyer was eager to demonstrate her effectiveness in her new advocateship.
3. His advocateship for social justice inspired many to join the cause.
4. The advocateship provided by her mentor helped her navigate the complexities of law.
5. In his role of advocateship, he championed the rights of the underprivileged.
6. The organization's advocateship focused on raising awareness about mental health issues.
7. She dedicated her advocateship to improving educational opportunities for all children.
8. His unwavering advocateship made a significant difference in the community's wellbeing.
9. The advocateship program aims to empower marginalized voices in society.
10. Through her advocateship, she fostered a sense of solidarity among the activists.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/advocateship>