

ADVOKE

Meaning: Advoke (verb): to call upon or invoke a principle, precedent, or idea in support of an argument or action.

1. The lawyer decided to advoke a lesser-known precedent in her argument.
2. During the meeting, he chose to advoke collaboration over competition among the teams.
3. She will advoke the importance of mental health awareness at the conference.
4. In his speech, he aimed to advoke environmental sustainability as a priority.
5. The professor sought to advoke a new approach to teaching mathematics.
6. They planned to advoke community involvement in the upcoming project.
7. Through art, she hoped to advoke empathy and understanding among the viewers.
8. The campaign was designed to advoke the benefits of renewable energy sources.
9. The organization will advoke for policy changes to support local businesses.
10. He took to social media to advoke the need for greater transparency in government.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/advoke>