

ADZ

Meaning: ADZ: A hand tool with a curved blade used for shaping and smoothing wood, particularly effective for creating curved edges.

1. The carpenter skillfully used an adz to shape the wooden beams.
2. He preferred the adz over a saw for its precision in crafting curved edges.
3. In traditional woodworking, the adz is an essential tool for hollowing out logs.
4. The craftsman demonstrated how to effectively wield an adz during the workshop.
5. Using an adz requires practice to master the technique and avoid injury.
6. She found an old adz in the attic, a relic from her grandfather's trades.
7. The adz's wide blade allowed him to create beautifully curved furniture pieces.
8. After sharpening the adz, he was ready to start his next project.
9. The historical significance of the adz is often overlooked in modern tool collections.
10. He admired the craftsmanship of the hand-forged adz displayed in the museum.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/adz>