

AERUGINOUS

Meaning: AERUGINOUS: having a bluish-green or greenish color, typically referring to the patina formed on copper and other metals due to oxidation.

1. The aeruginous patina on the copper statue gave it a unique and ancient appearance.
2. After years of exposure to the elements, the once shiny surface had turned a beautiful aeruginous hue.
3. The artist chose to highlight the aeruginous tones of the metal in her latest sculpture.
4. As the corrosion spread, the aeruginous coloration transformed the old roof into a striking feature of the building.
5. The aeruginous finish on the vase drew attention at the art gallery, captivating many visitors.
6. In nature, the aeruginous coloration can often be seen on aged bronze artifacts.
7. The scientist explained how the aeruginous deposits form through chemical reactions over time.
8. Collectors often seek out items with an aeruginous surface, as it suggests a rich history.
9. The aeruginous shade of the oxidized material contrasted beautifully with the surrounding greenery.
10. To achieve an aeruginous effect in his work, he used a special patina solution on the metal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aeruginous>