

AESTHETICALLY

Meaning: AESTHETICALLY: in a manner that is concerned with beauty or the appreciation of beauty in appearance or design.

1. The new art installation was aesthetically pleasing and drew crowds from all over the city.
2. She arranged the flowers aesthetically, ensuring each color complemented the others beautifully.
3. The building's design is aesthetically modern, with clean lines and a minimalist approach.
4. Aesthetically speaking, the film captured the essence of the era with stunning visuals.
5. He chose to decorate his apartment aesthetically, focusing on balance and harmony in every room.
6. The garden was planned aesthetically, with a careful layout that highlighted each plant's beauty.
7. Aesthetically, the painting evokes a sense of tranquility that resonates with viewers.
8. The fashion designer's latest collection was not only functional but also aesthetically innovative.
9. They redesigned the website to be more aesthetically appealing to attract a younger audience.
10. Her aesthetic taste is reflected in her choice of artwork, which blends classic and contemporary styles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aesthetically>