

AESTHETICISM

Meaning: Aestheticism is a philosophical and artistic movement that prioritizes the appreciation of beauty and sensory experiences over moral or utilitarian considerations.

1. Aestheticism emphasizes the importance of beauty in art and life.
2. The movement of aestheticism challenged the conventions of the Victorian era.
3. Many artists and writers embraced aestheticism as a response to industrialization.
4. Oscar Wilde was a prominent figure in the aestheticism movement.
5. The philosophy of aestheticism often values form over moral content.
6. In literature, aestheticism promotes the idea that art should be appreciated for its beauty alone.
7. The principles of aestheticism can be seen in the works of various 19th-century poets.
8. Critics of aestheticism argue that it can lead to superficiality in artistic expression.
9. Aestheticism encourages a celebration of sensory experiences and artistic innovation.
10. The influence of aestheticism can still be felt in contemporary art and design.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aestheticism>