

AFAR

Meaning: AFAR: at or from a great distance.

1. She could see the mountains rising majestically afar, their peaks glistening in the sunlight.
2. The sound of music drifted from afar, drawing her closer to the celebration.
3. He often pondered the mysteries of the universe, fascinated by the stars that twinkled afar.
4. From afar, the city looked like a shimmering oasis amid the desert landscape.
5. The artist captured the beauty of the ocean afar in her stunning painting.
6. They could hear laughter and joy coming from afar as they approached the gathering.
7. Her dreams of traveling the world always seemed just a little bit out of reach, afar from her current reality.
8. The lighthouse stood tall, guiding ships safely from afar through the treacherous waters.
9. With a longing heart, she gazed afar, wishing for a future filled with adventure.
10. The wildlife photographer patiently waited, hoping to catch a glimpse of the rare bird from afar.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/afar>