

AFFEAR

Meaning: Affear (verb): to frighten or intimidate someone.

1. The sudden noise seemed to affear the children playing in the garden.
2. His dark demeanor was enough to affear anyone who crossed his path.
3. The eerie shadows in the old house did little to affear the brave explorers.
4. She tried to affear him with her stern expression, but he only laughed.
5. The ghost story was crafted to affear the listeners on Halloween night.
6. Despite the storm's fury, the seasoned sailors were not easily affeared.
7. The haunting melody had the power to affear even the most courageous souls.
8. The thought of failing the exam began to affear her as the date approached.
9. A sudden flash of lightning would often affear those caught outside in a storm.
10. His reputation as a fierce competitor was enough to affear his opponents before the match.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affear>