

AFFECTEDNESS

Meaning: Affectedness refers to an artificial or pretentious display of emotions or behavior, often resulting in discomfort or a lack of authenticity.

1. Her affectedness in social situations often made others feel uncomfortable.
2. The actor's affectedness in his performance detracted from the authenticity of the character.
3. Despite her genuine talent, her affectedness in conversation alienated her peers.
4. His affectedness was evident in the way he exaggerated his emotions during the speech.
5. The poet's affectedness in his writing style seemed to overshadow the beauty of his verses.
6. Critics often point out the affectedness of artists who try too hard to be unique.
7. In her quest for sophistication, she developed an affectedness that felt insincere.
8. The teacher discouraged affectedness in her students, encouraging them to express themselves naturally.
9. His affectedness was a defense mechanism, hiding his true feelings behind a façade.
10. They appreciated her honesty, finding her affectedness to be a sign of insecurity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affectedness>