

AFFECTING

Meaning: Affecting: evoking strong feelings or emotions; moving.

1. The documentary was particularly affecting, leaving many viewers in tears.
2. Her heartfelt speech had an affecting quality that resonated with the audience.
3. The novel's affecting portrayal of loss left a lasting impression on its readers.
4. He found the music deeply affecting, stirring emotions he hadn't felt in years.
5. The affecting scenes in the play captured the struggles of everyday life.
6. She wrote an affecting letter that moved him to reconsider his decision.
7. The film's affecting climax brought the entire theater to a hushed silence.
8. His affecting mannerisms made it easy for people to empathize with him.
9. The affecting imagery in the painting conveyed a sense of profound sorrow.
10. Their affecting reunion was filled with joy and relief after years apart.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affecting>