

AFFECTIONED

Meaning: Affectioned (adjective): characterized by or expressing fondness or warmth in manner or tone.

1. She spoke in a tone that was both gentle and affectioned.
2. The dog's affectioned gaze melted her heart every time they met.
3. His affectioned words reassured her during moments of doubt.
4. The letters were filled with affectioned sentiments that brought back fond memories.
5. They exchanged affectioned glances across the crowded room.
6. Her affectioned demeanor made everyone feel welcome and loved.
7. He wrote an affectioned note to express his gratitude for her support.
8. In his affectioned embrace, she found comfort and safety.
9. The children played with an affectioned joy that was contagious.
10. Their affectioned bond grew stronger with every shared experience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affectioned>