

AFFECTIVE

Meaning: Affective refers to relating to moods, feelings, and emotions.

1. The affective response to the film left many audience members in tears.
2. Teachers often employ affective strategies to engage students emotionally.
3. Her affective disorder made it challenging for her to connect with others.
4. The therapist emphasized the importance of affective communication in relationships.
5. Children's literature can have a powerful affective impact on young readers.
6. Music has a unique ability to evoke affective memories from the past.
7. In psychology, affective empathy allows us to share in the feelings of others.
8. The affective nature of his speech resonated deeply with the crowd.
9. Affective neuroscience explores the neural mechanisms behind emotions.
10. Understanding affective cues can improve interpersonal interactions significantly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affective>