

AFFECTIVELY

Meaning: AFFECTIVELY: in a manner that relates to or expresses feelings and emotions, particularly in communication or interaction.

1. The therapist communicated affectively, helping her clients feel understood.
2. In the meeting, he affectively addressed the team's concerns with empathy.
3. Her affectively charged speech inspired the audience to take action.
4. They affectively managed their emotions during the challenging discussion.
5. The movie was affectively crafted to evoke deep feelings in the viewers.
6. He affectively utilized body language to enhance his message.
7. The teacher affectively engaged her students with interactive lessons.
8. Their affectively driven campaign resonated with voters across the region.
9. The artist affectively captured the essence of joy in her paintings.
10. She affectively expressed her gratitude, leaving a lasting impression.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affectively>