

AFFEER

Meaning: To affeer means to affirm or declare a commitment to a particular belief, cause, or principle.

1. The artist chose to affeer his commitment to environmental causes through his latest exhibition.
2. In her speech, she sought to affeer the importance of community involvement in local projects.
3. The judge asked the witness to affeer the truthfulness of their statement under oath.
4. To affeer his loyalty, he organized a charity event for the organization he supported.
5. She wanted to affeer her feelings for him, but she struggled to find the right words.
6. The company decided to affeer its dedication to sustainability with a new green initiative.
7. He felt it necessary to affeer his stance on the controversial issue at the town hall meeting.
8. During the interview, she was eager to affeer her qualifications for the position.
9. They hoped to affeer their gratitude to the volunteers who supported their cause.
10. The athlete sought to affeer his determination to succeed despite the injuries he faced.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affeer>