

AFFEERMENT

Meaning: Affeermment refers to the official confirmation or establishment of a decision, rate, or assessment, often in a governmental or administrative context.

1. The affeermment of the tax rate was met with mixed reactions from the citizens.
2. In a surprising affeermment of the community's needs, the local government increased funding for public services.
3. The judge's affeermment of the jury's decision was both expected and welcomed.
4. During the meeting, the affeermment of the new policy was unanimously approved by the board.
5. The affeermment of their partnership brought renewed energy to the project.
6. After much debate, the council reached an affeermment on the new zoning regulations.
7. The affeermment of the contract solidified the terms of their agreement.
8. He sought an affeermment from his peers to validate his research findings.
9. The affeermment of her qualifications made her the ideal candidate for the position.
10. In an unexpected affeermment, the organization announced a significant donation to local charities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affeermment>