

AFFIANCER

Meaning: Affiancer: a person who proposes marriage to another.

1. The affiancer presented a beautiful ring during the proposal dinner.
2. She felt a rush of excitement when her affiancer asked her to marry him.
3. An affiancer typically takes on a significant role in planning the wedding.
4. After dating for several years, he finally decided to become her affiancer.
5. They celebrated their engagement by throwing a small party with friends.
6. Her affiancer always makes her feel cherished and appreciated.
7. As an affiancer, he was eager to meet her family for the first time.
8. The couple's mutual love and respect made their engagement a joyful experience.
9. Being an affiancer means being ready for the challenges of planning a future together.
10. She couldn't stop smiling when she introduced her affiancer to her colleagues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affiancer>