AFFILIATION

Meaning: Affiliation refers to a formal connection or association with an organization, group, or institution.

1. Her strong affiliation with the university has opened many doors in her professional career.
2. The organization prides itself on its affiliation with various humanitarian groups around the world.
3. His political affiliation often influences his views on social issues.
4. The club's affiliation with the national sports league grants members exclusive benefits.
5. She felt a deep sense of affiliation to her hometown, even after moving away.
6. Their recent affiliation with a larger corporation has provided much-needed resources.
7. An individual's affiliation can sometimes lead to biases in how they are perceived.
8. The documentary explored the historical affiliations that shaped the community's identity.
9. His affiliation with the charity was evident in his dedication to volunteer work.
10. The school's affiliation with local businesses enhances student internship opportunities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affiliation