

AFFINED

Meaning: Affined: closely related or connected, especially through marriage or shared interests.

1. The two families were affined through a long-standing tradition of marriage alliances.
2. In the realm of science, she felt deeply affined to the study of genetics.
3. Their mutual love for literature made them feel affined in ways they had never anticipated.
4. As artists, they found themselves affined by their shared passion for abstract expressionism.
5. The philosopher argued that human beings are affined by their innate desire for connection.
6. He believed that their souls were affined, destined to meet in this lifetime.
7. The two cultures, though distinct, were affined by their common historical roots.
8. In the corporate world, employees often feel affined to their company's mission and values.
9. She felt affined to nature, often seeking solace in the tranquility of the forest.
10. Their friendship was affined by years of trust and shared experiences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affined>