

AFFIRMABLE

Meaning: Affirmable: capable of being confirmed or validated as true or legitimate.

1. The scientist presented affirmable evidence supporting her groundbreaking theory.
2. His commitment to the project was affirmable by the numerous hours he dedicated to it.
3. The team's success was affirmable through the data collected over the past year.
4. She sought affirmable proof of the claims made in the controversial article.
5. The lawyer emphasized that the contract contained affirmable terms that protected both parties.
6. Their shared experiences provided affirmable insights into the challenges they faced.
7. The committee found the applicant's qualifications to be affirmable based on her extensive resume.
8. He felt confident that his argument was affirmable through rigorous research and analysis.
9. In the meeting, several affirmable points were raised about the project's potential impact.
10. The results of the survey were affirmable, indicating a clear trend among the participants.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affirmable>